

Police Training Roles Learning and Development Programme (Version 3.1)

Design and Delivery in Practice Module

Module duration:

5 days

Pre-requisites:

Completion of the following modules from the Police Training Roles Learning and Development Programme:

Core Skills and Values;
Enabling Learning in Practice

or equivalent accredited prior learning /experience.

Also, completion of the Police Race and Diversity Learning and Development Programme (PRDLDP) Diversity and the Police e-learning or workbook is a pre-requisite of attendance on any module of the programme.

Principal content headings:

- The NAOMIE Design Model
- Programme and Session Design/Planning
- Developing Learning Materials
- Delivering Learning Sessions
- Reviewing Delivered Sessions

Learning outcomes:

Learners who have successfully completed this module will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the principles and processes of designing learning programmes to meet programme objectives and the needs of learners
2. Explain the basic principles and considerations involved in developing a learning session to meet session objectives and the needs of learners
3. Demonstrate an understanding of how to compose a session plan
4. Demonstrate an understanding of how to design, develop and adapt learning materials and resources to meet session objectives and the needs of learners
5. Demonstrate an understanding of good practice in the design of computer-based presentations
6. Identify, select and apply appropriate presentational techniques, structures and activities within a learning session
7. Identify, select and apply appropriate methods of monitoring learners' progress against learning objectives during a session